DETAILS OF REFUSAL OF NONSIGNING INVENTOR TO SIGN APPLICATION PAPERS

1. I am one of the nine inventors of the invention recited in U.S. Patent Application No. 09/909,587 (the "Application"), which was filed on July 20, 2001.
2. On October 24, 2001, I directed Tom Nicholson, another of the named inventors on the application, to arrange a meeting with Lynn Godbersen to discuss obtaining his signature on the Declaration and Power of Attorney. On October 25, 2001, Mr. Nicholson personally delivered the Declaration to Mr. Godbersen at his residence in Winterset, Iowa. I was informed by Mr. Nicholson that Mr. Godbersen would not sign the document until after he had the document reviewed by his attorney.
3. On November 13, 2001, I attempted a second time to obtain Mr. Godbersen's signature on the Declaration and Power of Attorney by sending Mr. Godbersen a letter enclosing the Declaration and a copy of the Application. The letter requested that Mr. Godbersen review the enclosed application and execute the Declaration, provided the information was accurate. I also enclosed a postage-paid Federal Express envelope and requested that Mr. Godbersen return the executed Declaration to me. I also invited Mr. Godbersen to call me if he had any questions regarding the documents. A true and accurate copy of my November 13, 2001 letter is attached hereto.
4. I sent the letter and enclosures via Federal Express and received confirmation that the package was delivered to Mr. Godbersen on November 14, 2001 at 11:46 a.m. A copy of the delivery confirmation from Federal Express is attached hereto.
5. To date, the document has not been returned and I have not heard anything from Mr. Godbersen.
6. After several weeks passed, on December 5, 2001, I called Mr. Godbersen at home. No one answered so I left a voicemail stating that I needed to determine whether he intended to execute the Declaration. I also left my phone number and requested that he return my call as soon as possible. No return communication has occurred.
7. The following day, on December 6, 2001, I again attempted to contact Mr. Godbersen at his home. I again only got his voicemail. This time I left a message stating that I had to hear from him today and that we either needed his signature by the end of the day or his statement that he was unwilling to execute the Declaration. No return communication has occurred and I have not heard from Mr. Godbersen since our initial attempt to obtain his signature in October.
8. Based upon all of the above actions on our part, I believe that Mr. Godbersen does not intend to participate in the prosecution of this action. If, for any reason, I should learn otherwise, I will promptly arrange to file appropriate documentation with the United States Patent Office.
